

Bakerview Square

Happy Holidays!

As the end of 2012 nears, we at RPM want to congratulate you on a great year! The Square is nearly full to capacity. With only 10% of the space being vacant we are confident that 2013 will take us to 100% occupied.

As I talk to the new tenants about the progress they are making, their enthusiasm is contagious. A rising tide raises all ships and the tide continues to rise.

Stop by Red Tag Furniture and look around. They have discovered a great niche and have some spectacular inventory.

West Coast Fitness is now open as well. They are offering a number of women's fitness classes and the energy level as you walk through the door makes you very motivated to join in on a variety of activities. See WestCoastFitness.com for more information!

Coast Salish Creations is now open and has generated a lot of interest in their terrific Native Art and expectations are very high!

Clearview Eyecare is expecting to open in December and are very excited about their new location here at The Square.

Coming soon is Tat'D Up, a tattoo and piercing shop. They will be open in December and already have a long list of clients anticipating their opening.

Please feel free to stop by and say hello to the new tenants. As the tide continues to rise, we all win together. We are currently speaking with several people about the remaining space at The Square. 2013 promises to be an even better year and we all look forward to it!

Announcements

Cordata Post and Parcel is now offering expanded printing, sign, and banner services after acquiring a commercial grade large format printer. Stop by and ask Maria what they can do for you with their new machine!

If you have any news, announcements, specials, etc., that you would like included in our next Bakerview Square newsletter, please send an email to office@rpmnw.com.
